In the Government Order read as first paper above, orders were issued to reckon the provisional service as Qualifying Service for pensionary benefit from the date of order. It was inter-alia ordered that past cases settled would not be re-opened. Subsequently, the above orders were cancelled vide orders read as 3rd paper above consequent on the issuance of G.O. cited 2nd. Now, it has come to the notice of Government that certain inconsistencies pertaining to the effective date of orders for reckoning the provisional service for pensionary benefits still persists as clarification sought in the reference cited 4th read.

2. Government have examined the case in detail and are pleased to clarify that the provisional service with or without break rendered by the employees upto 30.9.1994 which qualifies for earning increments in terms of Govt. Decision No.2 under Rule 33 Part III Kerala Service Rules will be reckoned as Qualifying Service for pension irrespective of dates of retirement after 20.11.89. The provisional service rendered on or after 1.10.1994 will not be reckoned as qualifying service for pension. The cases of retirement from service during the period from 1.10.94 to 15.12.1998 and pensionary claims already sanctioned will not be re-opened.

3. The Government Order read as 1st and 3rd paper above stands clarified and modified to the above extent.
